

November Supervisor's Report

The month started out with a meeting of the Committee on Community Development Grant funds with Christine Durgan of the County Planning Department. Then there was a flurry of Ribbon Cutting ceremonies. (1) The new Fed-Ex Building on the 3rd, (2) Geiger Therapy on the 4th, (3) Jewett Trail on the 10th, (4) UBS in Grand Blanc and Student Veterans Building at U of M-Flint on the 11th. I met with Kevin Smith on the the 4th of November and he offered the Historical Commission the use of his men, a dumpster and a truck to remove excess "stuff" from the Perry House. Ginny Knag and I worked most of the day with his people the following Monday. There was a meeting with Dave Geiger of Mundy Township the next day regarding the Fenton Road waterline, and later I met with Jack Wheatley on a problem regarding the Hillside Medical facility. On Thursday, I had lunch with Mr. Evans from Genesys regarding the timing of their future plans and then went to a Board of Determination hearing in Mundy Township. Later, I met with two Eagle scouts and their parents who wished to do projects connected with the Perry Homestead for their Eagle Badges.

On the 12th, I met with Karen Miller, Supervisor of Flint Township and later with John Daly of the Road Commission involving the snowplowing discussion. On the morning of the 13th, Mr. Dunnill and I met with Mr. Dubay for pre-planning for the upcoming arbitration hearing. In the afternoon I met with Keith Edwards on a potential development plan. Roads and Bridges was on the 17th followed by our weekly meeting with Mr. Lattie. Then, I was "jailed" at Don Francos to collect money for Muscular Dystrophy. On the 19th, I sat in on the meeting with the bond attorney for the Deerfield Roads, took Mr. Daly on a trip to see the unique situation in providing a sidewalk for the Perry Homestead. That night was the MTA district meeting which ended with my following Cathy to the hospital. On November 22, I met with Jack Wheatley at a resident's home in regard to a drainage problem. On November 24th, I was involved in the press conference promotion of Mark Ingram for the Heisman trophy, and then came back for the regular meeting with the attorney. In the afternoon, I attended a meeting with our insurance agent (liability, property damage, vehicles etc.) and that night was the 4th Tuesday meeting. The next morning was the Superintendent's breakfast and Water and Waste meeting, and the afternoon was spent working on grants. Then it was time to for all of us to take advantage some family time on a long Thanksgiving weekend.
