

April Supervisor's Report

April 1st started off with a meeting with Kirk, Mr. Dunnill, Mike, and Cathy on special assessments and later a meeting with Kirk, Debbie and Maria and I on Grants. That same afternoon, I met with representatives of Senator Stabenow and Representative Kildee on some problems we are having with FEMA on floodplain maps. Thursday was the Public Policy Committee meeting for Genesee Regional Chamber of Commerce. Following that, there were meetings to coordinate Grant procedures and on a Building Cleaning proposal. At that meeting, I met with one of our lawyers and then attended the County MTA meeting in Richfield township that evening. The next day, I met with a prospective Eagle Scout candidate about his project.

The next Monday, Dick and I and Dan Potter met with Mr. Geiger of NCG (Trillium) about their water rates. The next day I met at the MTA building with a representative from the State about developing regional economies and Dick substituted for me at Roads and Bridges. Later in the day, I met with Attorney Lattie. Wednesday was the Supervisor's Breakfast and Water and Waste. Then, at 3 o'clock, I was invited to sit in on a small session with the economist that spoke at the Issues Forum at U. of M. Flint. That night was the Homeowners Meeting. The next morning was another meeting with Mr. Pollina (the economist) at Genesee Chamber. Friday, I met with county library volunteers at their breakfast at McFarlen Library Sponsor.

Sunday, I was invited to attend the annual Board Meeting of Security Credit Union along with other office holders in municipalities where they have businesses. Monday started with a meeting with Dan Potter on possible potential changes in Research and Development water rates. That afternoon, I attended one of the Opinion leaders luncheon that the Grand Blanc Schools hold. That afternoon, Mr. Dunnill and I met with the mayor and city manager. regarding Fire Department millage. The following day was the groundbreaking for the new trauma unit at Hurley Hospital, the weekly meeting with the attorney. That afternoon, Grand Blanc hosted the county Freight Connectivity meeting at the police station and that night was the Township Board Meeting. Unfortunately, I ended the month by going to the hospital with an emergency appendectomy.
